

TAX ON SPLIT INCOME – 2010

Use this form to calculate your tax on split income if you meet all of the following conditions:

- you were born in 1993 or later;
- you were a non-resident at no time in 2010;
- you have a parent who was resident in Canada at any time in 2010; and
- you reported on your 2010 return, split income as described below.

Split income includes the following amounts:

- taxable amount of dividends (eligible and other than eligible) from ownership of shares of a corporation (other than from shares of a class listed on a prescribed stock exchange and those of a mutual fund corporation), whether received directly or through a partnership or trust (other than a mutual fund trust);
- shareholder benefits (other than from ownership of shares of a class listed on a prescribed stock exchange) conferred on you, whether directly or through a partnership or trust (other than a mutual fund trust); and
- other income you received from a partnership or trust (other than a mutual fund trust) that came from income that a partnership or trust earned from providing property or services to, or in support of, a business carried on by:
  - a person related to you at any time in 2010;
  - a corporation of which one of your relatives was a specified shareholder at any time in 2010; or
  - a professional corporation of which one of your relatives was a shareholder at any time in 2010.

Split income does not include the income described above from property you inherited from a parent. It also does not include the income described above from property you inherited from anyone else provided you were either enrolled as a full-time student at a post-secondary educational institution in 2010, or you were eligible to claim the disability amount for 2010.

Complete Part 1 to calculate your federal tax on split income. Complete Part 2 to calculate your provincial or territorial tax.
